Endorsement Lorenzo Imbesi for the Cumulus presidency

Dear board and dear members of Cumulus,

I would like to endorse the nomination of Lorenzo Imbesi for president of Cumulus. Lorenzo is a very committed to the cause and the aims and goals of the Cumulus organization. He has the academic track record to match the position. Furthermore he is a real community builder and will always put the communal interests as a first priority.

He is a great networker and can add to the future of the organization by enhancing the deep democratic structure of the organization that both the fundament of the organization and which so needed in our world today. ArtEZ, University of the Arts looks forward to work with him in the future.

Kind regards,
