Subject: endorsement for the position of next Cumulus President

I am Ravi Poovaiah, a senior faculty member at the IDC School of Design at IIT Bombay also with the role of representing the University and I am actively involved with the Cumulus Association since a long time, being one of the first members from India.

I am endorsing Lorenzo Imbesi for the position of next Cumulus President 2022-2025 because in my opinion, he is very capable of taking forward the mandates of this important organization with foresight, warmth and openness.

Thanking You,

Yours Sincerely,

Ravi Poovaiah
